

FireWorks annual Master Class

- A trunk and curriculum containing 40 hands-on activities for teaching about wildland fire science
- Covers physical science of combustion, fire history, succession, and fire effects on plants and animals
- New curriculum & streamlined materials - just released
- Includes materials on fire use by Native Americans
- Lessons for elementary, middle, and high school levels

When? Wednesday & Thursday, June 13-14, 2018, 8 am - 4:30 pm

Where? Fire Sciences Lab, Missoula, MT

It's free!!

MT OPI or UM Credit Available for Teachers!

Interested? Contact

Ilana Abrahamson, ilanalabrahamson@fs.fed.us, 406-329-4831)

More information: www.frames.gov/fireworks/fireworks-home/
<https://www.firelab.org/project/fireworks-educational-program/>

Produced by Forest Service, Rocky Mountain Research Station, Missoula Fire Sciences Lab